Pat Davie Limited (PDL) was founded in Hong Kong as a small interior design practice. Committed to professional service and workmanship, PDL has gradually developed into a reputable company among the industry and clients.

Our Service

We serve as Main Contractor, or a Specialist Sub-Contractor to accommodate clients' requirements. Our services include:

Planning

Design development and technical documentation for the exterior, interior, building services and finishes. Development and agreement of budgets and expenditure limits based upon specific requirements.

Quality Control

Constant supervision of the works to ensure maximum efficiency and quality control. Placement of procurement orders and sequential arrangement of all necessary materials, equipment and resources.

Preparation

Preparation and development of Master Works Programmes and schedules. Liaison with Client/Consultant at all stages of the project.

Approval

Preparation of necessary drawings and submission for approval. Provide estimates for Provisional items. Applications and liaison with Statutory Authorities and parties involved in the project.

Management

Regular progress reporting to Client/Consultant. Continuous tracking the agreed programmes with provision of advice concerning necessary measures to achieve key target dates and objectives.

Maintenance

Scheduling and monitoring of post contract, remedial and maintenance works.

A Registered Building Contractor

P.D.(Contractors) Ltd possesses the professional expertise and experience to fulfill the most sophisticated requirements. We work with qualified engineers to oversee projects according to their alteration or structural needs, moving for a total new outlook for the properties, so as to optimize the return on investment for our clients. The company has won acclaims from clients in terms of quality, efficiency and cost effectiveness.

Our Team

Commanding a workforce of over 200 professionals at management, supervisory, technical and administrative levels. Every employee is equipped with the necessary professional and technical skills and project experience.

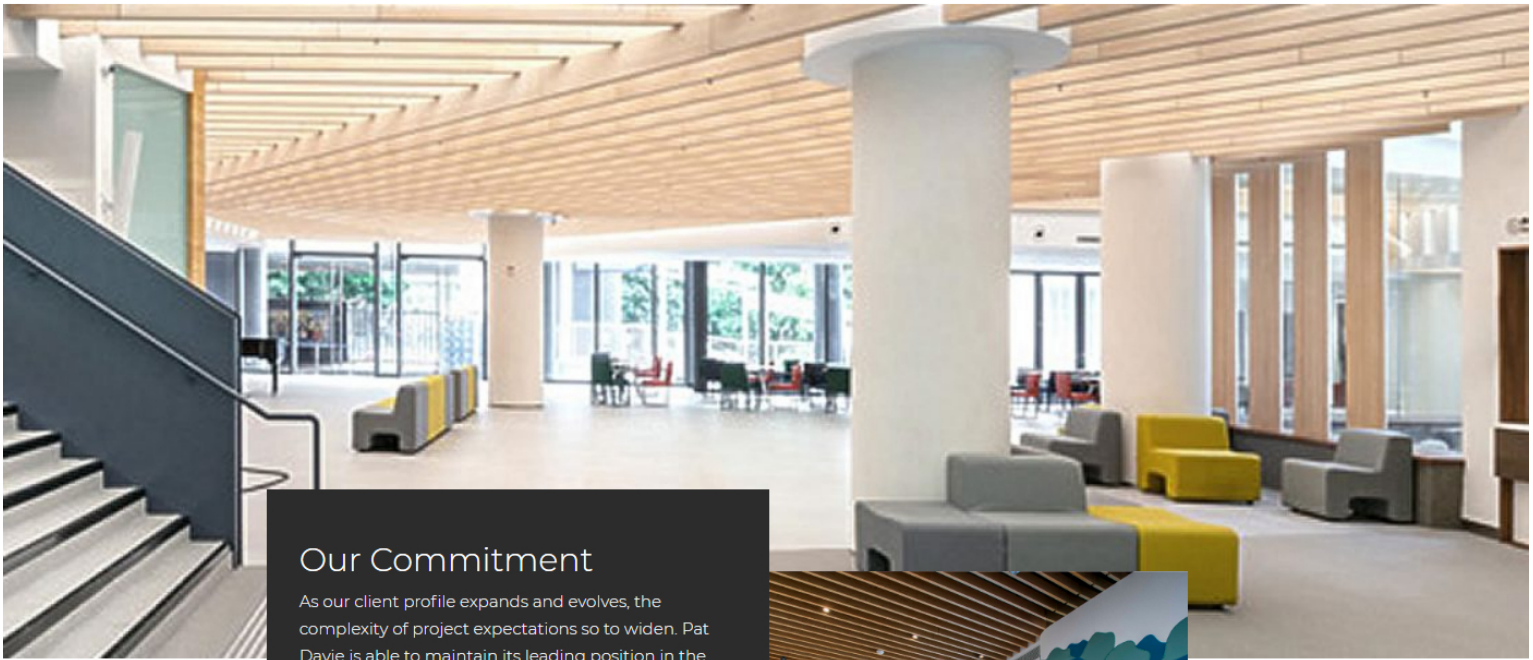

Project teams are selected based on their expertise and technical skills to suit the specific project requirements, and are responsible from inception through construction to handover and post completion of the project, so that each project will be completed in the highest quality possible for total client satisfaction.

As a pioneer in the fitting out industry, Pat Davie is always a step ahead. Pat Davie Ltd understands the importance of a professional and experienced workforce in order to remain competitive and creative during the ever-changing landscape in the business world. The company also recognises the importance of building long-term business relationships with clients through customer satisfaction in performance, quality and value for money.

Pat Davie is continuously investing into various resources. By utilising the company flexible structure, engineers and designers are held directly responsible for individual projects, so that one-stop service from interior fitting out, renovations and alteration works will be provided for clients.

Our Commitment

As our client profile expands and evolves, the complexity of project expectations so to widen. Pat Davie is able to maintain its leading position in the industry because our professional and experienced workforce is closely engaged with the client from planning, design development, construction work, handover and post-completion. The project team is fully supported by centralised facilities and technical services from head office, and project management service provides continuous monitoring and evaluation to ensure that maximum performance and services are provided for clients.

To address global climate change and environmental concerns, Pat Davie Ltd and its subsidiaries are fully committed to corporate sustainability. We ensure our 'We Care' culture translates into a positive impact on the economy, environment, and community as a whole. These naturally extend to on-site safety, and care and concern for our employees and our community. As our interior reimagining seeks to deliver enhanced ambience and practicality, we also seek to help people from all walks of life by redecorating homes or rebuilding schools, to create a harmonious society for all.

Quality Assurance

We adhere to best-practice guidelines in delivering high quality and safe products and services. We have integrated the ISO9001:2015 Quality Management System into our operations, while Quality Policy is in place to ensure compliance with relevant industry standards and specifications. Pursuing continuous improvement, we also adopt sustainable construction technologies such as BIM to enhance building quality and efficiency.

Technological Upgrades

We mitigate the environmental impacts by exploring innovative new technologies in green design and sustainable construction. With the aid of the innovative construction methodology, such as Building Information Modelling (BIM), PDL aims to enhance project efficiency by significantly reducing waste and the neighbouring impact.

“WE CARE” SPIRIT

Embracing the “Shui On – We Care” spirit, we are dedicated to build a better tomorrow by bringing positive impact and changes on the economy, environment and community.
